DEDICATION

To Dr. George Brodschi, a leader in international affairs, a guide to students, and a promoter of peace in the world, we, the editors, dedicate this 1957 Thoroughbred.

Dr. Brodschi, born in Rumania, graduated from the University of Bucharest with the degree of Doctor of Economics and Political Sciences. During World War II he joined the famous British Political Warfare Department, and later became a member of the British Colonial Service. In February, 1948, he came to Louisville and became an American citizen.

He is best known for directing the exchange of students; some two hundred students have gone to Europe through his Summer Work Exchange Program; nineteen University students have been granted scholarships and grants to study abroad through his influence. Not only have University of Louisville students benefited from his program, but two hundred and fifty students from other lands have come to our halls of learning, and afterwards have returned to their native lands with a renewed desire for world peace and understanding.

As Director of the International Center, Dr. Brodschi has co-ordinated local industries in this Summer Work Exchange Program—thus rendering his service not only to the University and its students, but to all Louisville as well.

He is a man who speaks many languages, who understands many peoples, and a man whose faith in God has found an active service to render unto all men.

His honors and citations from many nations are without number; each has been justly earned. With gratitude and respect we, the students of the University of Louisville, add this dedication to his many other honors.

Dr. Brodschi, professor, diplomat, leader in International affairs, friend of the University and its students, Christian of great and active faith, "Salutamus Te."

Dear Graduates of 1957:

Your long-expected day has now arrived, the consummation of many years of endeavor and effort. As I look back on my own life, I know how much it means to you, and I am sure you and those whom you love have sacrificed to make this possible, and I am sure also that it has been a happy time. As you look back on these days, you will realize that this was one of the happiest and most fruitful periods in your life. Here it was that you have received an education which will stand you in good stead as long as you live. Here you have formed friendships which will be among the most enduring you have ever made. Here, too, for many of you, you have found your life's companion.

In the years that you have spent at this University, if it has done for you what we fervently hope and believe it has, it has firmed up the foundations of your lives, given you a new understanding of your fellow men, a new sense of social responsibility, and taught you the value of intellectual effort and how to use your minds.

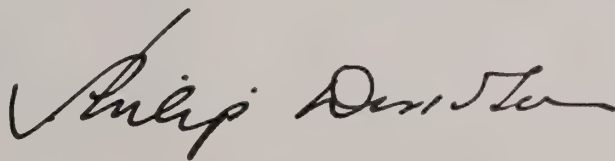

In the years to come, therefore, it devolves upon you, so richly laden, to pay back the debt you owe your alma mater, but what can you possibly give her back one-half so precious as her gift to you? Something equally precious to her and to all who come behind you seeking learning and inspiration, as you once sought them: freedom and support. Two things in particular will discharge your obligation.

In the first place, promote this university wherever you may be, in whatever city or town, or wherever you go. See that it is adequately financed. Join the alumni association, send your children here, speak up for the U. of L. wherever you are. Permeate this city with enthusiasm for it so that there shall come to it a tidal wave of support, and this institution, long cherished in this city, shall grow steadily in the support and affection of its people.

And, finally, defend and protect this institution with all your strength against any who would throttle or destroy its freedom; uphold its reputation for integrity and sound teaching; defend the right of the faculty to freedom of teaching and inquiry; and protect it from the harassment of irresponsible individuals and from unmerited criticism. Only in such an atmosphere can we expect this University to discharge its first responsibility—the education of men and women for God-fearing lives of usefulness and leadership in this city, state and nation.

Thus throughout the length of days can you bring intelligence, human understanding, and faith to the ordering of your daily lives and in so doing, honor the University which nurtured you.

Sincerely,

Phi Kappa Phi

The honor society of Phi Kappa Phi was founded in 1897 and is national in scope. Its primary objective has been from the first the recognition and encouragement of superior scholarship in all fields of study. Good character is an essential supporting attribute to those elected to membership. Chapters elect from all schools of the universities, thus providing a coordinating influence. The efforts of Phi Kappa Phi are intended to further the fulfillment of its motto—"The love of learning rules the world."

The Woodcock Society is the oldest honorary scholastic organization of the University of Louisville, having been organized in 1920 by Dr. John L. Patterson, Dean of the College of Liberal Arts and later Chancellor of the University. In that year he invited all recipients of the Woodcock Medal to become the nucleus of a society whose aim would be to secure a chapter of Phi Beta Kappa for the University. The name was adopted in honor of The Right Reverend Charles E. Woodcock, Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Kentucky, who had in 1910 initiated the Woodcock Medal award as a memorial to his son.

Woodcock

Membership is augmented each year by a selection of not more than ten per cent of the graduating class whose scholastic standing is at least 2.2 during their junior and senior years, and who possess the characteristics of loyalty, integrity, and initiative. The Woodcock Society presents annual awards to the students who have achieved the highest scholastic standing in the freshman, sophomore, and junior classes, and offers financial aid from its permanent loan fund to graduates of the University for further study. It also makes contributions to the University Library annually.

Omicron Delta Kappa

Omicron Delta Kappa, leadership honor society for men, was founded December 3, 1914, at Washington and Lee University, Lexington, Virginia, by fifteen student and faculty leaders. In the tradition of the idealism and leadership of George Washington and Robert E. Lee, the founders formulated the idea that all-round leadership in college should be recognized, that representative men in all phases of college life should cooperate in worth-while endeavor, and that outstanding students and faculty members should meet on a basis of mutual interest, understanding, and helpfulness.

Mortar Board was founded in 1918, and at the end of 1955, was serving through 95 chapters, all of which had begun as independent local societies. The University of Louisville group—The Pallas Club—became a Mortar Board chapter in 1949. Its purpose is "to provide for the co-operation between societies, to promote college loyalty, to advance the spirit of service and fellowship among university women, to maintain a high standard of scholarship, to recognize and encourage leadership, and to stimulate and develop a finer type of college woman."

Members selected on the basis of scholarship, leadership, and contribution to campus life are tapped each year at the Fryberger Sing.

The Political Campaign

The vice presidential candidates visited U of L on successive days in September to address student convocations. Democratic hopeful Estes Kefauver came first, and the next day Republican Richard Nixon spoke. The largest convocation crowds in the University's history gathered in front of the Administration Building to hear the candidates.

Later in the campaign Kentucky was host to President Dwight Eisenhower, seeking his second term, and Adlai Stevenson, his Democratic Opponent.

SUMMARY

Although plagued by injuries and bad breaks the entire season, the Cards did an amazing job in compiling their fine record. Two of the three losses were heart-breakers, while only a powerful Xavier eleven out-classed the Redbirds. The team boasted a fine running game, with passing relegated to a secondary role. The defense performed adequately, holding their opponents to one touchdown in five of the games, but various other teams exposed a few chinks in the U of L armor, primarily around the tackle position. The Cards, however, displayed fine form as a team, and are justifiably proud of their showing.

SWIMMING

This year's Cardinal swimming team compiled a 5 win, 1 loss, and 1 tie slate to complete another successful season and remain unofficial Kentucky Intercollegiate Swimming Champions for the third straight year.

The tankers saw their 18-meet winning string snapped by a strong Missouri Mines team but went on to run their three year record to 21-1-1.

Greg Bobrow was high scorer for the year with 70 points, followed by Wynn Paul's 65 points.

In twenty-three starts, the 1956 edition of the Baseball Cardinals came through with thirteen victories. Although the record is respectable, to say the least, Coach Heldman felt that his boys should have done better. Many of his veterans slumped while new members could not take up the slack left by the graduating seniors.

A sore spot for the Cardinals was its hitting, as they could only compile a .263 team average. It was fortunate that the pitching was strong enough to keep the opposing batmen to an even lower .247 composite. Steve Riley led all hitters for the Cards with a .312 mark, while Wally English proved to be the work horse of the pitching staff, as he posted a 4-2 won-lost record.

Although the team did not live up to early season hopes, Card fans had plenty to cheer about in Leonard Lyles. After winning every regular season century dash, Lyles went on to qualify for the Penn Relays in 9.7, but could do no better than third place in the finals.

The team itself turned in an unspectacular 2-3-1 record.

Student Bar Association

The Student Bar Association, the Student Government of the School of Law, is patterned after the American Bar Association and is designed to familiarize law students with the functions of the Bar Association and provide a more effective and efficient form of student government.

JUDICIAL ASSISTANCESHIP PROGRAM

The major objectives of the program are to give Law students, appointed to the program, practical training in court room technique and practice.

The Law School has promoted another first in this program as it has done under the Briefing Service.

Officers—Barry Wehrman, Earl O'Bannon, and John Ruhe.

MOOT COURT

The Moot Court Club affords students an opportunity to present cases on both the appellate and trial levels. The Club also participates in the National Moot Court Competition, held each year, by sending two of its outstanding advocates to compete with students from other law schools throughout the nation.

BRIEFING SERVICE

The Briefing Service, founded in 1936, was the first such program in the nation.

It renders a research service to members of the Kentucky Bar, whose library facilities are inadequate, to solve complicated legal problems. The Briefing Service does this work without charge to the attorney who submits each problem.

DELTA THETA PHI

Delta Theta Phi Law Fraternity was founded in 1900 and installed at the University of Louisville in 1948.

The object of Delta Theta Phi is to unite congenial law school students, to lead them to high scholarship, and to advance such interests in every college of law with which this fraternity is associated.

PHI ALPHA DELTA

Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity was founded in 1897. The Vinson Chapter of Phi Alpha Delta was installed at the University of Louisville in 1935.

The Fraternity seeks to cultivate a closer bond of friendship between lawyers and students, to promote social and intellectual intercourse among its members, and to attain a higher and broader culture than that afforded by the regular college course.

SOUTHERN POLICE

Southern Police Institute

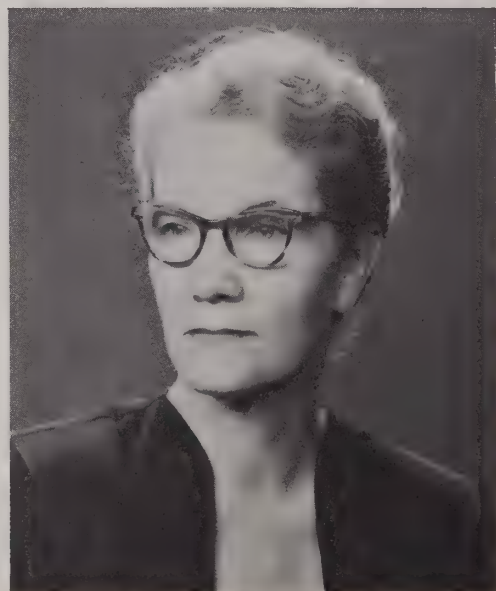

The Southern Police Institute, established in January, 1951, is endowed by the City of Louisville, Carnegie Corporation of New York, General Education Board (a Rockefeller foundation), and the Acmaro Securities Corporation. The Institute conducts two twelve-week terms and four two-week seminars each year. Students are admitted by application, and preference is given to officers from southern states, although due to the great demand, a limited number are accepted each term from the other states and foreign countries.

Operation of Lie detector is explained to fellow classmates by Lt. Breitzmann, Evanston, Illinois.

Alcohol and Road Traffic

In February, 1956, the Institute held a two-week seminar on Alcohol and Road Traffic. The seminar was under the direction of Lt. Robert Borkenstein, Director of the Indiana State Police Laboratory, who was assisted by Dr. H. Ward Smith, Director of the Crime Detection Laboratory, Department of Attorney General, Toronto, Canada; Dr. George H. W. Lucas, Professor of Pharmacology, University of Toronto; and Mr. Lloyd Shupe, Police Chemist, Columbus, Ohio. The course was attended by surgeons, police chemists, toxicologists, technicians, and crime laboratory personnel from all over the United States. This was the first time such a seminar had been given in the United States, and it attracted world-wide attention. Inquiries concerning the findings of the course have come from scientists, law enforcement agencies, and learned societies in many countries.

DENTAL PRODUCTS

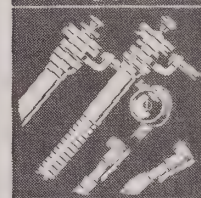

Look around the operating room of almost any successful dentist — and it's a safe bet you'll see S. S. White products. They belong there traditionally. Chances are they're the same make of products the dentist started with — and stayed with — because they do what is claimed for them. The name "S. S. White" is your assurance of this — on everything from burs to operating units. Take the first step to success by getting to know your S. S. White Dealer — or write to us. Incidentally, our free office planning service is at your disposal, too.
